

“LIGHT: 2021 Juried Exhibition” at ATHICA

by Jessica Smith September 22, 2021

Currently on view at the Athens Institute for Contemporary Art (ATHICA), “LIGHT: 2021 Juried Exhibition” presents contemporary works in all media that explore or reference light. Guest juried by Matt Porter, curator at the Morris Museum of Art in Augusta, the exhibition features a total of 18 contributing artists, including Paula Reynaldi, Rachel Evans, Claire Clements, Diane Speight, Marty Winkler and Allie Jackson, as well as award winners Didi Dunphy, Henry McEachern and Mac Balentine. While some artists utilize light as a critical element in their creative process, others emphasize light as a concept or source of inspiration. A virtual juror and artist roundtable discussion will be held on Zoom Sept. 22 at 7 p.m., and the exhibition will remain on view through Oct. 3.

Coinciding with its 20th anniversary, ATHICA recently launched a $10,000 fundraising campaign to purchase its current facility located in the historic Leathers Building.

Donations are tax-deductible, come with incentives and will be matched by the Huffer Foundation. Visit athica.org to register for the roundtable, and go to gofundme.com/f/athica-20th-birthday to donate.

Like what you just read? Support Flagpole by making a donation today. Every dollar you give helps fund our ongoing mission to provide Athens with quality, independent journalism.